a letter stating his intention to pursue legal action against her. The statement of charges was based upon the same conduct that was the subject of the 2009 investigation. The court concluded that the 2009 charges were properly substantiated. In its fact finding, the court stated that the defendant "had a pattern of engaging in sexual intercourse with ... a minor, that the... minor was only fourteen years old at the time of the intercourse, that the defendant was charged in 2009 with the same conduct, that the defendant did not confess to committing the same offenses... and that the defendant falsely told the police that the minor never told him that she was only fourteen years old." The court concluded that "the defendant's testimony that he had no sexual 82157476af
